

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. ## ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION.

ARTICLE 1. This Association shall be known as the "LADIES' LIBRARY ASSOCIATION, OF ANN ARBOR."

ARTICLE 2. The object of this Association shall be to establish and maintain a Library, and to afford other means of moral, intellectual, and social improvement.

ARTICLE 3. The corporate powers shall be vested in a Board of fifteen directors, five of whom shall be elected at each annual meeting, and shall hold their office for three years and until their successors are elected: Provided, That said Board of Directors shall not contract debts, nor sell any property of the Association, except in pursuance of a vote of the same at a regular meeting.

ARTICLE 4. The officers shall be a President, Vice-President, Secretary, and Treasurer who shall also be Collector, and shall be elected from the Directors at each annual meeting. All vacancies, either of officers or directors, occurring during the year, shall be filled by the Board.

ARTICLE 5. The President, and in her absence the Vice-President, shall preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Directors. She shall call special meetings of the Association by order of the Board of Directors, or upon the written application of seven members; of the Directors, upon the written application of three members; or of either, when in her judgment the interests of the Association demand it.

ARTICLE 6. The Secretary shall perform the usual duties pertaining to that office, and shall present a report at each annual meeting, and whenever called for by the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE 7. The Treasurer shall receive all moneys for the Association, and disburse the same on the order of the Board of Directors, signed by the Secretary. She shall keep an account of the receipts and disbursements, and make a report thereof to the Association annually; to the Board of Directors quarterly, and oftener if required; and shall give such security for the faithful discharge of her duties as the Directors shall require.

ARTICLE 8. The Board of Directors shall meet monthly, and nine members shall constitute a quorum. If any member of the Board shall absent herself from its regular meetings for more than two successive months, without giving satisfactory reason therefor, her place may be declared vacant.

ARTICLE 9. The Board of Directors shall designate three of their number as a Book Committee, with power to select and purchase books, subject to the approval of the Board. They shall also appoint a Librarian, and Assistant Librarian if deemed necessary, and define their duties.

ARTICLE 10. Any lady may become a member of the Association by subscribing to this Constitution and paying an admission fee of three dollars.* Each member shall also be subject to a yearly tax of one dollar, the same to be paid in advance, at or before each annual meeting.

ARTICLE 11. Any gentleman contributing fifty dollars to the funds of this Association shall be made an honorary life member, and be constituted an advisory member of the Board of Directors. Any gentleman paying the same fee and tax as is required of lady members shall be entitled to the privilege of the Library.

ARTICLE 12. A portion of Scripture shall be read at each meeting, in the order and by whom the President shall direct.

ARTICLE 13. The annual meeting of this Association shall be held on the second Monday in April, and the Secretary shall give such notice thereof, and also of special meetings, as the by-laws shall prescribe.

*See Amendment of Article 10, page 5.

ARTICLE 14. The Board of Directors may make such by-laws as they shall deem necessary, not inconsistent with this Constitution, and amend the same at pleasure.

ARTICLE 15. This Constitution may be amended at any annual meeting by a two-thirds vote of the members present.

At the annual meeting held April, 1878, Article 10 was amended so as to read:

Any lady subscribing her name to this constitution and paying an admission fee of one dollar, may be elected a member of this association, subject to an annual tax of one dollar to be paid in advance.
